GOLETA LIBRARY ADULT WINTER READING PROGRAM

Warm Up With Reading! And You Might Win a Prize

GOLETA, CA – December 13, 2012

Post-holiday wintertime is a great time to settle in and read a good book. The Santa Barbara Public Library System invites adults to the Goleta Library to join the First Annual Winter Reading Club, Warm Up With Reading!, at the Goleta Library, at 500 N. Fairview Avenue in Goleta, from January 2 through February 28, 2013. Participants can read or listen to any titles they choose at home or away from home, and become eligible for a weekly drawing.

No registration is required for this simple program. After finishing a library book or listening to a library audiobook, patrons come to the Goleta Library and fill out an entry ticket. Drawings will be held weekly, with prizes provided through the generosity of local merchants, organizations, and the Friends of the Goleta Library. There is no minimum or maximum number of titles to read for the program. "Children and teens have a wonderful annual summer reading club at our libraries," said Branch Supervisor and Librarian Allison Gray. "I wanted to provide the nostalgic experience to our adult users as well. I remember the fun of participating in those clubs as a child and thought we adults could use a little excitement in these dreary winter months!"

Visit the Goleta Library or the Santa Barbara Public Library System's web site sbplibrary.org to find out about these and other programs at the Goleta Library. All library programs are free and open to the public.
